

Viva Flowers

Dream come true

AFTER months of renovations, Viva the flower store in Angaston has excitedly opened its doors to present a stunning new interior.

A greatly expanded store has enabled owner Avril Hallows to spread her wings and increase the area available not only for the beautiful fresh flowers the store is famous for, but also a great gift range which includes brand favourites such as Mozi, Greengate Denmark and Dwell Baby.

"I get such a lot of enjoyment working with flowers and feel blessed to be able to work in a field I love," Avril said. "It's a dream come true taking it to the next level."

And along with Viva's own unique gift selection, local business 'alabaster [Barossa]', owned by Bridget Laucke, will also be housing their range of soulful products in-store.

"I saw that there was a synergy between Viva and 'alabaster' which would complement each other and greatly add to the retail offer in the Barossa," Avril said.

Over two levels, Viva and 'alabaster' have blended into the expanded space which includes more room for the striking flower selection, a wedding consultation area, enhanced work space and serene retail space.

"I am very passionate about the store which has been an important part of the growth of Viva. The staff and I almost feel like we are starting a new job - everything is fresh and it's a beautiful place to visit."

Weddings are also a large component of Viva's success and there is now a dedicated area where brides can discuss the details of their big day and select from the large range of wedding hire equipment. Available for hire are quality glass vases, candelabras, table lamps and mirrors - in fact, everything you could desire for your wedding tables including fresh ideas.

Viva the flower store is at 67 Murray Street, Angaston and is open from 9am-5pm Monday - Friday and 9am-3pm Saturdays. Phone 8564 3393.
